CORAM; A.P. DESHPANDE, J.
DATED; 30TH APRIL, 2007

P.C.;

1. An interlocutory order passed by the Industrial Court, Kolhapur, directing the parties to proceed with the examination of witnesses and lead evidence, is challenged by filing the present writ petition. Perused the order. The same does not call for any interference. As the application filed before the trial court itself seems to be vague in as much as the same does not even disclose as to whether the applicant wanted to have the commissioner appointed for recording of evidence or for verification of membership. The learned counsel appearing for the respective parties are in agreement that expedited disposal of the application would subserve the ends of justice. In the facts and circumstance of the present case, I feel that an early decision of the application would meet the ends of justice. Hence the Industrial court is directed to dispose of the application as expeditiously as possible, preferably by end of August 2007. Writ Petition is summarily dismissed.
